

Dear Supplier

Camisano Vicentino, 27/03/2020

SUBJECT: Thank you for your valuable collaboration in managing the Covid-19 emergency

Dear Supplier,

we want to thank you for the dedication and commitment that you are showing us in this period of great international emergency, supporting us with your excellent service despite the understandable difficulties that can be encountered to date. It is a sign of a huge social responsibility.

With determination you are assuring us a continuity in supplies: thanks to you, we can continue at full speed with our production activities, constantly safeguarding everyone's health and safety, and we are very grateful to you.

Thanks to your valuable contribution, our mission is to continue to guarantee our food supply chain so that nothing is missing from the shelves of our supermarkets.

We care about the drivers who reach our production sites every day and for this reason we want to make their stay more pleasant and familiar by welcoming them with sweetness by distributing chocolates containing our lecithin.

Sincere thanks to all of you.

Best regards,

Silvia Santarelli
